1st February 2021

Dear Dr Leong Kei Joe, the President of the Malaysian Dental Association, distinguished guests, dentists, gentlemen and ladies,

Greetings from Taiwan Dental Association (TwDA) !

I am Tung-Yuan Wang, the president of Taiwan Dental Association.

Due to the impact of the coronavirus epidemic, I am sorry that I cannot come to the venue in person. Nevertheless, it is so appreciated and a great honor for me to have this opportunity to represent our association to celebrate the big event, the annual Malaysia Dental Association-Scientific Conference and Trade Exhibition, with you from the mail.

Since the connection of the Sisterhood between MDA and TwDA in 2013, we jointly promote the oral health of the two citizens, enhance the welfare of the members of the two associations, share new knowledge in the dental field and strengthen academic in the spirit of mutual cooperation and exchanges benefits. The exchange has yielded fruitful results. It all thanks to the cooperation and support of the Malaysian Dental Association.

Through the extraordinary organizational system and infinite professional capabilities of Malaysian Dental Association, a variety of online courses and exhibitions are well arranged, so that all participants can receive new knowledge and discuss topics in a safe and secure environment. I believe this conference will definitely be able to bringing full harvest to all participants, I wish The annual Malaysia Dental Association-Scientific Conference and Trade Exhibition a complete success.

Finally, I wish all the guests safe and healthy, the friendship between the two sessions will last forever, and the conference will be prosperous!

Sincerely,

Wang, Tung-Yuan
